Reeves issues additional COVID-19 measures

Gov. Tate Reeves
ECHO STAFF

Gov. Tate Reeves on Monday announced additional measures to slow the spread of COVID-19 with Executive Order 1527. The order places a 10 percent capacity requirement on healthcare facilities throughout the state, a release from the governor’s office states. “If hospitals cannot maintain 10 percent of their capacity of COVID-19 patients, they must delay elective procedures,” the release states. “This was a vital part of the effort to prevent hospitals from becoming overwhelmed during the summer wave. Mississippi’s COVID-19 cases have increased over the past few weeks — part of a global and national trend of increasing cases.” Reeves also announced additional measures for the following counties only: Chickasaw, Claiborne, DeSoto, Forrest, Itawamba, Jackson, Lamar, Lee, and Neshoba.

The Bay-Wave-land School District recently opened the district’s new multi-purpose field house at the Joe D. McCullough Stadium. And, without a doubt, it was a sight for sore eyes. The new field house and training facility replaces the dingy and outdated rectangle building that stood for close to 50 years. The new building is a multi-purpose athletic training facility for the entire athletic program and features a locker room area for football and boys and girls soccer. The 9,000 square foot-plus facility has a shared weight room for all programs, football locker room with shower facility, training rooms, 30-year warranty Phenolic lockers, head coach’s office, assistant coaches’ office, film room, dual purpose meeting room with Promethean boards and TV, upstairs storage, and commercial washer and dryer units with ample storage space for

Hancock Family Drug Court Program to receive $742K DOJ grant

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

U.S. Attorney Mike Hurst on Friday announced awards of more than $8.6 million in Department of Justice grants to fight drug abuse and addiction in the Southern District of Mississippi, including $742,462 which will be going to the Hancock County Court under the Family Drug Court Program.

“This grant will help us go even further to change the lives of families in Hancock County,” Hancock County Judge Trent Favre said in a social media statement.

The grants were awarded by the Department’s Office of Justice Programs (OJP) and are part of more than $341 million going to communities nationwide, Hurst said.

The Hancock County funds will be used for the purpose of expanding treatment options and resources for parents diagnosed with substance abuse disorders whose children are involved in our child welfare system, Favre said.

Favre said he applied for the grant at the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic.

“Through this three-year grant, the Youth Court will be able to provide evidence based diagnostic and therapeutic treatment services through licensed medical providers as well as social, emotional and other support through a program coordinator and licensed master social worker,” Favre said. “I am extremely excited to announce our partnership with Tulane University Medical Center and Tulane University School of Social Work for this revolutionary program.

Special thanks to Cynthia Chauvin, Executive Director at CASA of Hancock County, for connecting me to Dr. Kenneth Roy and Dean Parker Robinson at Tulane. While I had the framework for this program in my head and then on paper, it was this important connection that not only helped broaden the scope of services, but also linked our program to a nationally recognized and accredited institution.”

Favre said the Hancock County Board of Supervisors and Mississippi Department of Child Protective Services will provide in-kind support to meet the mandatory governmental match requirement for the grant funds.

Favre also thanked the youth court staff of its assistance and support.

“I am looking forward to the services we will be able to provide for our families in Hancock County, furthering our mission to instill hope in the lives of those we serve,” Favre said.

“I am grateful to the Department of Justice for investing in our communities to help address addiction has adversely affected so many Mississippians and their families,” Hurst said. “These groups should be commended for stepping up to address these problems in their communities. We have achieved so much in the last three years and we will continue to fight the epidemic of illegal narcotics on multiple fronts in order to make our neighborhoods safer.”

Other Mississippi agencies and organizations included in the funding include:

- The Mississippi State Department of Health - $6,000,000 under Category 2 of the Comprehensive Opioid, Stimulant, and Substance Abuse Site-based Program.
- The Harrison County Board of Supervisors - $827,963 under the Family Drug Court Program.
- The Lamar County Board of Supervisors - $599,981 under Category 1 of the Comprehensive Opioid, Stimulant, and Substance Abuse Site-based Program.
- Mississippi Division of Public Safety Planning - $434,114 under the Residential Substance Abuse Treatment for State Prisoners Program
- Jackson County, Mississippi - $94,328 under the Adult Drug Court and Veterans Treatment Courts Discretionary Grant Program.

HCSD to bring virtual learners back to campuses on Oct. 26

ECHO STAFF

The Hancock County School District on Tuesday announced its plan to bring all virtual learners back to classrooms on Monday, Oct. 26.

There are currently 4,159 students enrolled in the district and 576 of those are long-term distance learners, a release from the school district states.

As of Oct. 26, all students are expected to be physically present in class or will be counted absent, the release states.

There are a couple of exceptions:

- A student with an extreme underlying health condition.
- A student who has a full-time resident of his or her home experiencing an extreme underlying health condition that prevents them from safely attending school.

- Students with IEP that have a homebound placement.

Parents of students with one of the above conditions must apply for Medical Long Term Distance Learning, the release states. The application is available on the district’s website and must be completed and submitted by Oct. 20 and parents will be notified before Oct. 26.

“We know that students learn best when physically at school, interacting with a teacher and classmates,” HCSD Superintendent Alan Dedeaux said in the release. “Many of our students that were distance learners and returned to traditional learning at mid-term of the first nine weeks were not performing well academically. Since their return, we are already seeing improvement.”

According to the release, “district leaders feel they have been successful with managing positive COVID-19 cases since the return of school. The school district acknowledges that there may come a time in the future when distance learning is required again, however, they realize that for now, it is critically important to have students back at school to make the most of the time they can in the classroom.”

Dedeaux said the district looks forward to working with parents through this next step.

“We also look forward to having our students back in school learning and soaring to academic excellence,” he said.

Presidential race, new state flag, medical marijuana on Nov. 3 ballot

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

There’s much more on the ballot for Hancock County voters on Nov. 3 than just the U.S. presidential election — there’s also a contentious U.S. Senate race; a race for a seat on the Bay-Waveland School District Board of Trustees; a referendum on a new state flag design; and two measures on making medical marijuana legal in Mississippi.

Election officials say the medical marijuana initiatives on the ballot may be the most confusing for voters.

It includes Initiate Measure N0. 65, and Initiative Measure No. 65A.

Measure No. 65 says “Should Mississippi allow qualified patients with debilitating medical conditions, as certified by Mississippi licensed physicians, to use medical marijuana?”

Measure No. 65A says, “Shall Mississippi establish a program to allow the medical use of marijuana products by qualified persons with debilitating medical conditions?”

Voters will be asked to vote “for approval of either,” or “against both,” and a separate vote for one measure or the other.

“You either vote for the medical marijuana or against it,” Hancock County Circuit Clerk Kendra Necaice said, “and then you go to the next question. If it passes, which one would you want to pass?”

If you vote ‘no’ on the first one, you can still go to the next, because if it passes, you can say which one that you want. But you’re not required to vote after that first question ... but no matter how you voted on that first question, you have the option to vote on the second.”

Aside from being confusing, the matter is also somewhat controversial.

The Mississippi Board of Health unanimously voted to oppose the measure earlier this year, arguing that there are existing FDA-approved drugs that can be legally prescribed in Mississippi, thus precluding the need for actual legalized marijuana; and others decry the fact that the initiative will not allow state or federal taxation.

“Initiative 65 proposes to use the constitution of the state of Mississippi to serve the business interests of a few to enrich and empower themselves at the expense of the people of Mississippi,” Dr. Mark Horne, president of the Mississippi State Medical Association wrote in an op-ed piece sent to every newspaper in the state.

“The Governor, Legislature, local government and law enforcement will be told to stand down and rendered powerless before this amendment.

“State, city and county government will never see a dime of revenue from the windfall of cash filling the coffers of the marijuana industry. Initiative 65 permits a 7 percent fee collected by the MSDH, to be used only to administrate and advance the medical marijuana industry,” Horne said.

Those in favor of the measure point to the fact that medical marijuana is already legal in 34 other states, and the fact that multiple studies have found medical marijuana can be very beneficial to people suffering from a range of ailments including cancer and epilepsy. Proponents also say that already-legalized medications that contain cannabinoids are often far too expensive for post people to easily procure.

OTHER ITEMS ON THE NOV. 3 BALLOT

The first item on the ballot, of course, is the presidential race, and there are far more candidates in the mix than most people have even heard of.

The presidential electors ballot for president and vice-president includes, in the following order:

- Joe Biden and Kamala D. Harris, Democrat.
- Donald J. Trump and Mike R. Pence, Republican.
- Don Blankenship and William Mohr, American Constitution party.
- Brian Carroll and Amar Patel, American Solidarity party.
- Phil Collins and Bill Parker, Independent.
- Jo Jorgensen and Jeremy “Spike” Cohen, Libertarian.
- Brock Pierce and Karla Ballard, Independent.
- Kanye West and Michelle Tidball, Independent.

all equipment.

Coaches can film workouts in the weight room with a bird’s nest viewing area upstairs.

Bay High head football coach Jeremy Turcotte commented, “The administration has shown a commitment to the young people of the district with this facility. It is a state of the art facility that takes our entire athletic program and district to another level. The previous facility was severely outdated and this is a major upgrade. Here, our players can lift safely and and comfortably. The administration has stepped up and provided the necessary tools that the entire program needs to be successful.”

During the summer as the building came to life and neared completion, the coaches had a hard time keeping them away from the surprise that awaited them.

Turcotte added, “Some of these players will be able to compare the old facility to this one while the middle school players will only know this facility going forward. It sheds a new perspective on many of the players who have been phenomenal through the construction phase. We are in a building that is 100% usable and about 90% complete. We lack the internet to this building which is on contract to be installed soon and other odd and end things that have been interrupted in the supply chain by COVID-19. Those things are out of our control but they will be resolved in due time. The entire country is experiencing this delay, not just Bay High.”

graphs that document the history of the program and glare at today’s occupants enticing them to achieve success.

The door to the head coach’s office features a compilation of photos of every head coach from Lance Lumpkin to Turcotte. The quotes displayed throughout the building come from notable football coaches and speak volumes to the players who will see them daily. But, there is one quote on the head coach’s door that echoes loudly to all who enter. It simply states, “Do Right!”

It is a quote from longtime Bay High football coach Joe Shaw who coached Turcotte in high school. It is mantra that Turcotte and the staff have kept close throughout the years.

Without a doubt, the administration of the Bay-Waveland School District did exactly that when they erected this building.

The additional measures in these counties include: Indoor social gatherings should be listed to groups of 10; outdoor social gatherings should be limited to groups of 50; and face coverings are required while indoors and interacting with the public without social distancing.

“We’ve seen this before,” Reeves said Monday. “We know what can happen if we allow this to get out of control, and so we want to be proactive to prevent that from happening. None of these elements are silver bullets. None of them will totally eliminate the virus. We have to allow for life to go on in the meantime. As we wait for a vaccine, our mission is the same as it ever was: To prevent our healthcare system from being overwhelmed. That has to be the focus.”

The criteria for additional measures include: More than 500 cases per 100,000 residents over a designated two-week period or more than 200 cases total over the designated two-week period (with more than 200 cases per 100,000 residents).

cluding Price, who said her mother passed away from cancer.

“Our organization is a giving back organization,” she said. “We help where there is a need.”

Retrofit does just that with “Delivery of Hope,” which comes in the form of a kind word; a visit; a card; a phone call; or a food basket, Price said.

“We deliver hope to individuals,” she said.

In preparation for Saturday’s parade, the group is making inspirational bookmarks and keychains with messages of encouragement and inspiration, Price said.

“I know when people receive it they get excited,” she said. “We want to deliver hope into people’s lives and for them to know that they’re not alone. We should be able to help others going through the same thing and get rid of the stigma of not telling people they have cancer. We want them to know that they aren’t fighting alone. That’s the hope we are trying to relay.”

Hancock County native Michael Joseph organized Constance Cares for Cancer to provide financial support for local families battling cancer.

His mother, Constance Joseph of Waveland, passed away in 2012 from colon cancer.

Long before his mother became ill, Michael vowed that once he found his own success, he would return to his hometown and give back.

Deanna Harris of Waveland is one of the recipients of goodwill from Constance Cares for Cancer.

In 2013, Deanna said she began experiencing blood clots in her legs. After numerous rounds of testing, blood work, and a visit to an orthopedic doctor, Deanna said, she continued to have problems with blood clots and blood loss, but no diagnosis until a doctor saw something that he “didn’t like” on a CAT scan of her stomach.

After a biopsy, Deanna was diagnosed with ovarian cancer. Doctors sent her to Mobile, Alabama for further testing and exploratory surgery, where she learned that the cancer was confined to her left ovary.

Deanna said doctors removed her left ovary and some lymph nodes.

She underwent six rounds of chemotherapy.

In December 2013, her levels increased again and doctors performed a hysterectomy and then diagnosed her with uterine cancer as well.

After the surgery, Deanna had six rounds of radiation treatment and remained in remission for four years, she said.

In 2018, she had another biopsy of nodules in her neck and learned they had cancerous cells in them, she said.

Her cancer had returned.

“I went through radiation again and had an allergic reaction to it,” she said. “It threw me into steroid-induced diabetes. They stopped regular treatment and put me on another drug which didn’t agree with me either. They were trying everything possible to make it work.”

Deanna said that if she has to stop her current treatment, there’s “nothing else I can go on.”

The first time she was diagnosed with cancer, Deanna said, it was Stage 2, it is now Stage 4.

Through Constance Cares for Cancer, Deanna said, the organization has helped her financially. She is able to travel back and forth from her treatments.

“He takes me to my flights and puts money in my pocket to hold me over while I’m there,” she said.

Deanna, who recently turned 39, said she is unable to have children, but does have an adopted daughter and a grandchild.

“God has been my strength,” she said. “Without him, I don’t know where I would be. I surround myself with positive people and block the negative things out.”

Deanna said her doctors consider her to be in remission as of now, but there is no cure for her illness.

“It’s heartbreaking to me,” she said. “But I’m still here. I’ve got another chance at life and I hope for the best.”

The parade begins at Martin Luther King, Jr., Park on Herlihy Street in Waveland and travels to Martin Luther King, Jr., Park in Bay St. Louis on Washington Street.

After the parade, Constance Cares for Cancer will present checks to families in need to help cover medical and personal expenses related to cancer treatments. Proceeds are evenly distributed amongst families.

CITY OF BAY ST. LOUIS, MS GAS SYSTEM

PUBLIC AWARENESS NOTICE

Please read the following gas system safety information.

It is provided to promote public awareness and damage prevention awareness.

The City of Bay St. Louis, MS owns and operates a natural gas distribution system. The gas system consists of an underground network of pipeline throughout the City. The purpose of the gas system is to provide a reliable and safe economical source of energy for heating purposes to the homes and businesses adjacent to the underground gas pipelines. The pipeline system has the capacity to reliably deliver natural gas to the customers.

The hazards of natural gas are that it is: odorless, colorless, tasteless, lighter than air and can ignite and/or explode with tremendous force when mixed with the right amount of air.

Prevention measures taken include:

- adding odorant to the gas to give it that distinctive smell, similar to rotten eggs, to warn us of its presence
- testing the odorant level each calendar quarter
- performing annual gas leakage surveys, and
- conducting periodic pipeline patrols

The following are signs that may indicate a gas leak:

- A hissing or roaring sound (caused by escaping gas),
- A patch of dead or discolored vegetation in an otherwise green setting along a pipeline route,
- Blowing dirt, grass or leaves near a pipeline
- Continuous bubbling in wet, flooded areas,
- A “gas smell” similar to rotten eggs.

Safety Procedure:

Anyone who may smell this odor in the City or notice any unusual conditions on or near gas mains, vents, service lines, meter sets, or especially inside of a building should call the City immediately. If you smell a strong gas odor inside a building, notify everyone in the building to leave. Do not operate any switches or use the phone. Go a safe distance away upwind of the gas smell and call the City. With any gas leak protect life first then property, then notify the City.

Excavator Procedure:

Pipeline markers are maintained to inform the public of the gas line location. State and federal laws require excavators to notify Mississippi One-Call (2) Full working days before digging. If any excavation is planned you must notify MS One-Call which will notify the City to locate the gas lines. The City of Bay St. Louis maintains membership in the MS One-Call program.

Emergency Contact Information:

To obtain additional information or report a gas related issue call the City of Bay St. Louis, MS Public Works at 228-467-5505 or Police Dispatch at 228-255-9191. The MS One-Call Center phone number is 811.

This information and the pipeline signs are provided as public awareness and damage prevention awareness notices.

A good product

Imagine it can be difficult to start a new business.

Years ago, after Hurricane Katrina destroyed our family home, I thought about taking the property, which was on the bayou, and building a used bookstore and coffee shop.

When I went to Ole Miss, I used to study at Square Books. They had this quaint little balcony and a cup of coffee was quite cheap with $.25 refills. It was a nice quiet place for me to reflect not only on what was going on in my life, but also to read my assignments for the many English literature classes I took.

Apart from not having any kind of funding to start a bookstore venture, I wondered if there would be a market for it around here.

Because of course, if you're wanting to sell a product, there needs to be a demand for it.

In addition to the demand - and probably most importantly - it needs to be a good, reliable product.

Something that the consumers can really trust and want to spend their hard-earned money on.

If you don't spend any time on your product, I don't believe you will find the success you dream of.

Nowadays, more and more people are becoming more conscious of the products they purchase by also looking at how the owners of a company treat their employees; and how they allow their employees to treat the customer.

It's a lot to look at, because, realistically, we cannot know every little detail about every single company we purchase a product from.

But, when we do learn something that doesn't align with our beliefs, we can make the decision to take our money elsewhere.

On a local level, more often than not, shoppers get to meet the owner and get to know the employees on a personal level.

Now that I've solidified my addiction to the double dirty chai drink at Mockingbird Cafe, the ladies know me by name and, sometimes, we even get the chance to chat about random topics.

Then it becomes less about the product, and more about the human connection we are making and that is what keeps me going back.

Another newer aspect of consumerism in this day and age is social media.

We get to see how the owners or employees act in another setting.

Does it always sway my pocketbook? Sometimes no.

Wicker Opposes Calls to Pack Supreme Court

Expanding High Court Would Harm American System of Government

Last year, the late Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg gave what would become her last major interview, reflecting on the Supreme Court and her long life of service. At one point she was asked about "court packing," the practice of adding new seats to the Supreme Court to guarantee favorable rulings. She flatly rejected the idea. "If anything would make the court look partisan, it would be that," she said. Instead, the number of justices should remain the same: "Nine seems to be a good number. It's been that way for a long time."

Justice Ginsburg is now gone, but her wise words continue to ring true. Indeed, for decades both parties have denounced court packing because it would undermine the separation of powers and confidence in our legal system. But in recent years, some Democrats in Congress have suggested court packing as a way to counter the growing number of Republican-appointed justices on the Supreme Court.

From the Senate

By Sen. Roger Wicker

For example, Congressman Jerrold Nadler, who chairs the House Judiciary Committee, said a future Democrat-led Senate should "immediately" move to pack the court. Likewise, Senator Ed Markey called on Democrats to "abolish the filibuster and expand the Supreme Court." Even Chuck Schumer, the Senate Minority Leader, said "nothing is off the table" if Democrats win the presidency and control of the Senate in November.

Adding seats to the court to change its ideological balance should concern every American. There have been nine seats on the Supreme Court for more than 150 years, providing stability and trust in the rule of law. To protect this tradition, I am supporting several measures in the Senate that would help prevent a change to the number of seats on the Supreme Court.

COURT PACKING EFFORT BACKFIRED ON FDR

Court packing was last attempted by President Franklin Roosevelt in the 1930s. The Supreme Court had struck down several laws that were part of Roosevelt's New Deal. Unable to win on the merits of his proposals, he attempted to change the court. In 1937, he launched an effort to add up to six new justices.

Americans rallied against the plan, understanding that an independent judiciary was vital to our system of government. Even Roosevelt's own Vice President, John Nance Garner, came out against it. The Democrat-led Senate defeated the proposal by a 70-20 vote.

Roosevelt would end up appointing eight Supreme Court justices – not because of court packing, but because he filled vacancies in a constitutional manner during his 12 years as President. Winning at the ballot box was the appropriate way to have an impact on the judiciary. The same lesson holds true today.

SUPREME COURT IS NOT A SUPER-LEGISLATURE

Like FDR, those who urge court packing today are looking to federal judges to produce certain outcomes. But this

National Forest Products Week

Most people do not stop to think about the important role that forest products play in our everyday lives, especially in Mississippi. From clean air, paper, buildings, bridges, energy, chemicals and the jobs that support the production of all these things, our world depends on trees to provide for us.

National Forest Products Week will be observed October 18-24, 2020. This annual observance began on September 13, 1960, when Congress passed a joint resolution providing for the establishment of an annual National Forest Products Week to be held each year on the week beginning with the third Sunday in October. (Ironically, it was Representative E.L. "Tic" Forrester from Georgia who presented the proclamation in the House

Conservation Corner

By James L. Cummins

for approval.) President Eisenhower signed the first proclamation 2 days later while calling on the people of the United States to observe the week of October 16, 1960, "with activities and ceremonies designed to focus attention on the importance of our forests and forest products to the Nation's economy and welfare."

During this time we should recognize the research that has been conducted by the Forest Service and Mississippi State University for more than 100 years in support of its mission to sustain the health, diversity, and productivity of the nation's forests. This research promotes the responsible use of this natural resource. New products and technologies developed through this research create jobs, especially in rural areas, and stimulate economic growth. Without these ongoing efforts to sustain our forests, we might not have anything to celebrate.

Perhaps the best thing about forest products is that they come from a renewable and sustainable resource. Not only are wood products recyclable, durable and energy efficient; healthy, growing forests play a key role in absorbing carbon dioxide, releasing oxygen, and storing carbon over time.

So, during the week of October 18-24, take a look around, think about the many ways that our forests benefit you in your everyday life. National Forest Products Week is a time to recognize the many products that come from our forests, the people who work in and manage our forests, the people who make the products, and how all of it contributes to our lives.

CARROLL VIRGINIA MITCHELL, NÉE BRELAND

Carroll Virginia Mitchell, née Breland, arrived in Caesar, MS on January 3, 1943 and departed this life in Slidell, LA on October 12, 2020—77 years, 9 months, and 9 days on the roller coaster we call life. She was not just a rider, she sat in the front seat through peaks of joy and valleys of heartache while pioneering marriage, motherhood, and career in Hancock County from the 1960s until just the other day.

NanaGin lived in Bay St. Louis, MS. She contracted the Coronavirus and gracefully battled it even as it quickly became clear that the disease would win. Within hours of her death, she mastered a Zoom video call and held court in her ICU room for her next of kin. She had a message to deliver, “I’ve had a good life; celebrate it, and have no sorrow.”

Virginia, Gin, Mom, Momma, Nana and other names of endearment—she left on her terms albeit with God’s Grace. She was greeted in Heaven by her beautiful daughter, the late Whitney Faith Johnston, who charted her own course to Heaven in 1982. For those who knew Whitney and Virginia, you know the heartache that Mom endured through the loss of her child. Indeed, it affected everyone mentioned in this obituary and many more, and it required Virginia’s strength, courage, and fierce belief in God to continue.

Paraphrasing William Faulkner, NanaGin “believed that a woman would not merely endure, she would prevail. She is immortal, not because she alone among creatures has an inexhaustible voice, but because she has a soul, a spirit capable of compassion and sacrifice and endurance.”

Without question, Momma had an inexhaustible voice and a soul and spirit that demonstrated compassion, sacrifice and endurance. Look in the dictionary for the definition of “sacrifice” and you will see her picture, along with those of her sister and brothers who also sacrificed to keep our family moving forward. In her parting moments, the grandchildren thanked her for her love and many sacrifices, testifying to Nana’s positive impact on their lives.

Born to the late Joseph B. “Jake” Breland and Vivian Vera Breland, née Lee, Gin was the second of four children—although Jake later blessed her family with many stepsiblings.

As a child, Virginia always seemed to plan for inflation and seemed to know that candy bars would shrink in size while going up in price. She would accompany her mother and siblings to the corner store where Vera would give each a nickel, but Virginia always asked for a quarter.

She graduated Bay High School in 1961, where she excelled in both academics and sports, especially basketball. After a brief stint as a local beauty queen, she next excelled at accounting and bookkeeping while working at Moore & Powell, CPAs, PA. After that, she worked with companies like Diamond Corporation, which developed the City of Diamondhead. Later, she worked in the accounting department at Western Sizzlin and retired after working with the late H. S. “Duffy” Stanley, a Department of Justice Bankruptcy Trustee. Of all her employers, Duffy was the “Man” because

BARBARA ANN LADNER

Barbara Ann Ladner, 88 of the Ansley community, gained her heavenly wings Monday, October 5th. She was born May 15, 1932 in Logtown, the oldest of seven children to Arthur and Jessie (Dawsey) Lee. Growing up in rural Hancock county, Barbara was a country girl through and through. Before she was 10, she could pick vegetables from the garden, cut firewood, plus make (from scratch mind you) a darn good pan of biscuits. Being the oldest, Barbara was always called upon to help with most all tasks and chores around home, including helping with her younger brothers and sisters. She learned how to clean live chickens to eat, along with many other “country” tasks. After graduating from Bay High School in 1951, Barbara married Leo Ladner October 21st that year. The couple made their home originally in Bayou La Croix where they started their family, until the buffer zone expansion forced them to move. They decided on the Ansley community and had resided there since. She has been a member and faithful attendee at St. Ann’s Catholic Church for the past 50 years, where she loved to sing and help with church functions. She is remembered as a simply wonderful woman in every aspect. She loved her family and it brought joy to her heart to feed them, along with anyone else who would eat. You didn’t stop by to visit Barbara without eating something. From hand-made chicken and dumplings, to one of the best coconut cakes ever made, you never left her home hungry. Barbara was also the type that never met a stranger, easily striking up a conversation with anyone. In fact, the family jokes that she could even talk to a fence post, so long as the wind would blow and move it a bit every now and then. She enjoyed her garden and flowers, especially but definitely not limited to, morning glories. A loving and wonderful mother, grandmother, neighbor and friend, Barbara will be fondly remembered and sadly missed by all whose life she touched. She was preceded by her parents, Arthur & Jessie Lee; her loving husband of 62 years, Leo Clarence Ladner, Sr., two children, Linda and Randy Ladner; her sister Letha Dell Douglas, and her son-in-law, Terry Breshears. Left to cherish her many memories are: her children: Leo (Becky) Ladner, Jr. of Kiln, Sherrie (Tommy) Mauffray, Glenda (Allen) Cole, Ellen Treadway, and Darlene Ladner, all of Ansley; Rita Breshears of Long Beach, and Craig (Teresa) Ladner of Gulfport; her sisters Teresa Ballard of Picayune, Viola Sterling of Waveland, Opal (Harlon) Bennett) of Kiln, Carol (Eddie) Veign of Slidell and her brother, Pete (Pam) Lee of Lucedale, along with her four-pawed son, “Baby Reece”. Barbara leaves a legacy of ten grandchildren: Tommy Mauffray, Jr., Stephanie Hight, Ora Leigh Necaize, Corey Green, Cliff Treadway, Craig Ladner, Jr., Travis Ladner, Michael Breshears, Samantha Barlow and Amanda Walley, along with twelve great-grands: Rebecca, Jasmine, John, Alora, Conner, Caroline, Hailey, Breckin, Abby, Austin, Rileigh, Camaron and Zayden, a great-great grandson, Cayden Bice, her godchild Etheline Bennett, along with numerous extended family, friends and neighbors through the years. Funeral services were held Wednesday, October 7th at St. Ann’s Catholic Church. Following the funeral mass, Barbara was laid to rest in the Bayou La Croix cemetery. Trinity Funeral Services is honored to serve the Ladner family in their time of need, asking everyone to keep them in your prayers through this difficult time. If you missed the services, please sign the online guest registry at www.trinityfunerals.net

he helped her aspiring son, Kenneth, get his first lawyer position with the esteemed Robert Alan Byrd and the late Nicholas Van Wiser at the Byrd & Wiser law firm. While there, Kenneth learned the fine art of losing cases for family members to avoid getting hired by them again and eliminating the need for Nana to explain that her son had in fact earned a law license.

For much of her life, she invested heavily in Coca Cola and Harper-Collins Publishers. No, not stocks or bonds—just bottles and books. Rarely did she not have either one in her hand, although later in life she opted for water. She continued reading throughout her life.

Virginia did not like getting left out. While some females of her time set out to champion Wall Street or politics, she opted for a more local impact particularly as a female trailblazer who enjoyed hunting and fishing and making inroads into the traditional male world of outdoor experiences. There was a time when the now-paved Texas Flat Road required mud tires to travel it. Many a hungry hunter, in the area still known as Devil’s Swamp, ate like royalty from the many spreads that Virginia served on Thanksgiving Day. But to be sure, she also carried a 16 Gauge Reming-

LOVE IS PATIENT, LOVE IS KIND

By GARY ANDREWS

During the holiday seasons I watch a lot of Hallmark channel movies. Most of these movies are oriented to the season and most of them are geared toward showing love for someone or for showing love toward one another. These are great movies that always have great purpose to them, do not show immorality, no vulgar scenes, and do not use any profanity. They are genuinely good family movies. These movies show a lot of people being brought together through circumstances other than what we expect in everyday life. Actually, it could be everyday life, we just choose not to recognize it because it may get in way of our earthly desires or wants and we fail to recognize what is right in front of our nose. Many of you may have seen the Christmas in Conway movie. It was about a man wanting to give his dying wife a final wish and give her a ride on a ferris wheel until she passed away. The only thing he could do was to purchase one and put it in his backyard which was in a historic district of town. His next door neighbor, which had grievances that went back to both families’ grandfathers, was trying to be the Christmas showplace of the town and complained about what was going on next door with the ferris wheel. The man, a staunch, self-righteous man, had trouble getting along with people and most of the problem was his grief that he was carrying inside because of his sick wife. He had trouble working with the hospice nurse who came to live with them until his wife would eventually go home to be with the Lord. The man had hope he could take care of his wife without the help of trained professionals. He had trouble with a young man that eventually helped him construct his project because the young man had stolen something from him in the past. He had no faith in the young man. Yet the young man turned his life around because the man’s dying wife was a former school teacher of his and forgave him of his problems and showed him how he could turn his life around. We are told in 1 Corinthians 13:4-7; “Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.” As the story ends the man learned from the hospice nurse that not only did she care for his wife, she cared for him by not letting him run her off and helped him overcome some of the grief that he was harboring. The young man didn’t give up on the man either and showed him that all he wanted was forgiveness because he wasn’t the same person he was in the past. He had actually done something with his life and just wanted to be a help to others, especially the dying lady because of her faith in him and her nurturing him in the right direction. Both show unconditional love for the man. The lady next door, that wanted all the glory for her Christmas showplace, eventually came around because she witnessed the love the man gave to his wife in erecting a ferris wheel in his backyard overcoming the obstacles he faced from her, the law, and others. It is my hope that all of us as we face each day of the rest of our lives, is that we will look around and help those in need. Many are going to say they don’t want our help but we can help them through love and prayerful concern. Each one of us will need to exercise our faith, hope, and love in our neighbors and friends.

IN THE CHANCERY COURT OF HANCOCK COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF CHARLES JOSEPH TRACEY, SR., DECEASED DENNIS LOGAN TRACEY, ADMINISTRATOR CAUSE NO.: 23CHI-18-cv-730 (MA)

PETITION TO CLOSE THE ESTATE AND DISTRIBUTE ASSETS; FIRST AND FINAL ACCOUNTING COMES NOW, DENNIS LOGAN TRACEY, the duly appointed Administrator of the Estate of CHARLES JOSEPH TRACEY, SR., Deceased, and files this his Petition to Close the Estate, to file and accept the final accounting, authorize payments of valid claims; and to reimburse Administrator for costs, fees, and expenses, and in support of same would show as follows, to-wit:

1. Your Administrator, DENNIS LOGAN TRACEY, a natural child of the Deceased, was duly appointed as Administrator of the Estate of CHARLES JOSEPH TRACEY, SR., Deceased, by Letters of Administration issued to him by the Chancery Court of Hancock County, Mississippi, on December 11, 2018.

2. Your Administrator would show that he has received into his hand's assets, as reflected on the Inventory filed herein consisting of real property with a street address of 2226 Mole Drive, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi 39520 (said real property was sold and the funds deposited into the Court Registry). The Estate also had some personal property, including very modest furniture and an un-operable boat. Said personal property had a value of less than three thousand dollars ($3,000.00).

3. The Petitioner would show that he has contacted all known creditors of the Estate and of the Deceased. They include the lawn and pool maintenance personnel and others. The Petitioner would also show that he has personally paid for utilities and other expenses of the Deceased and/or the Estate and request reimbursement for such sums advanced.

4. Your Petitioner would show that there is one claim filed against the Estate and the Administrator, on behalf of the Estate, objects to this claim. This is not a claim against the Estate and/or the deceased and should be denied.

5. Notice to Creditors was duly published in the Sea Coast Echo, a newspaper having general circulation in Hancock County, Mississippi, on February 12, 2020, February 19, 2020, and February 26, 2020, and no other claims were asserted. This Administrator request an Order barring any other claims.

6. That all heirs-at-law of the deceased have been identified and each has entered a waiver to appear, and the heirs-at-law of the deceased are his three natural (3) children, Dennis Logan Tracey, Charles Joseph Tracey, Jr., and Sean O'Hara Tracey. Each heir will receive one-third (1/3) of net proceeds from the Estate, if any. Waiver and appearance are stated in Docket #5 & Docket #6, herein.

7. At the time of his death, the Deceased owned real property and personal property, which has been sold and the funds filed in the Court Registry. The personal property belonging to the decedent at the time of his death had very little value, included very old furniture, and an old un-kept boat. The Administrator had to clean the property and discard the furniture, and received a small amount for the boat which was used for the Estate costs and expenses.

8. The Administrator would request an Administrator's Fee, an amount not to exceed 3% of the value of the Estate.

9. That due to the value of the Estate, there is no tax liability and/or responsibility for the Administrator and this matter should be closed.

10. That the Administrator has marshalled all the assets as stated herein, sent out proper notice to creditors, declared and found all heirs, and request that this Estate be closed, and that he be discharged as the Administrator. Attached is the First and Final Accounting as Exhibit "1".

11. That the Estate has had to hire counsel, DONALD J. RAFFERTY, Attorney at Law, Gulfport, Mississippi, of the law firm of Rafferty Law Group, PLLC.

The law firm has rendered valuable legal services to this Estate and the Administrator request that Counsel be awarded a reasonable sum for services rendered, court costs, publication fees, and recording fees in the amount, not to exceed Fifteen Thousand and 00/100 ($15,000.00) Dollars, plus expenses. WHEREFORE, your Administrator prays that this the Annual and Final Accounting, Petition to Close, and the Discharge of the Administrator be received and filed and upon hearing hereon, your Administrator will be discharged from any further responsibilities and duties as by law required, and further that all previous acts of the Administrator be approved and ratified by the Order entered in this cause; that the Court accept and approve the Annual & Final Accounting. Petitioner prays for such other, further and more general relief as in equity he may be entitled to receive. That any and all assets of the Estate be given to the Administrator, and that he be authorized to paid and proper claims, if any, and distribute the net assets to the heir-at-law of the Deceased.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED, this the MEET FORD.

Unfortunately, Ford's dad was unable to reclaim him due to personal issues, and for that we are so sad. This 3 year old, Black Mouth Cur/Labrador Retriever mix is such a good boy! He is gentle and sweet natured, and has already impressed our staff with his excellent behavior. Ford is house trained and keeps his kennel spotless. He gives gentle hugs and is accustomed to being loved and cared for in a family environment. We hope his time with us will be short, and that he finds his true forever family very soon. Ford would be a wonderful companion for a single person, couple or active retirees. Or, he could join a family with kids looking for a canine best buddy. If this handsome boy sounds like the new furry family member you've been seeking, then please call our front desk at 228-466-4516 to schedule a meet-n-greet. Please bring your dog(s) along for the visit to ensure compatibility. You will fall in love with this amazing boy. Please visit our Facebook page, Hancock County Animal Shelter, MS, to see more of our wonderful animals looking for their forever homes.

NOVEMBER 3RD

BIDEN HOOD

I don't watch much commercial TV but recently caught a couple of Joe Biden's ads and one for Mike Espy. The first one is Biden's Robin Hood, steal from the rich to give to the poor ramble which includes him promising a precise amount of money to be distributed to each citizen who doesn't fit his definition of rich (Webster calls this Pandering). Imagine Joe in Lincoln green tights. Incidentally, the 13th century outlaws of Sherwood Forest stole from the rich AND the poor AND kept it for themselves. Joe's ad is also the definition of inciting class envy, a counter-productive maneuver whose only true value lies in vote-getting.

In another commercial Joe is seen in an academic setting surrounded by professor-types, listening and nodding to the silent comments as if he understands. He doesn't. In a true academic surrounding as a law student at Syracuse, he was disciplined for plagiarism. Never one to learn from his mistakes, Joe's 1988 presidential run ended as he acknowledged multiple acts of plagiarism. Among the synonyms for Plagiarism are theft and stealing.

His party's national leadership have neglected governing via a four-year long attack on the current administration, aided and abetted continuously by the mainstream media. That media has, in effect, determined that Donald Trump has been history's most active president, each day accusing him of more things done wrong than any three other Chief Executives combined, right or wrong. Nancy Pelosi's impeachment schemes were found to be hollow. They began with Mrs. Pelosi claiming these actions were "...her Constitutional duty." This from a politician who, along with her party's leadership, treat the Constitution as a hindrance, and who continuously attempt to subvert it along with its Bill of Rights (our Rights). This is known as Hypocrisy, a particularly nasty form of lying. Just a few weeks ago she was still threatening impeachment. Among her most hypocritical pronouncements was her expression of love for the President. Such people do not wish to be public servants nor public leaders, but rather public rulers.

Biden has been a bit more careful since announcing that Blacks who wouldn't vote for him were not Black. Neither he nor Mike Espy seem to have much to say about the overall condition of Black America after over a half century of their party's promises. The party leadership is aware that support is slowly eroding as successful Blacks are recognizing the inherent fallacies. The party needs Black support "one more time" in order to secure a new, larger, ever-growing and more dependable voting block among illegal aliens.

Biden's party is suddenly infused with the knowledge of what should have been done about COVID-19. Hindsight is usually 20/20 when dealing with unprecedented events, but probably not in this case. Where his party controlled local and state governments their response included efforts to infringe upon Americans' constitutional rights by closing gun shops and suspending laws beneficial to gun owners. Biden says he'll place in charge (of his formal anti-gun program) the Texas politician who announced he would confiscate legal, semi-automatic rifles that "resembled" a military style. Typically, those involved continue to knowingly use an inaccurate term to describe these firearms. Espy continues to get an "F" from NRA.

America isn't alone with the COVID-19 economic downturn. Biden's party claims to know how to remedy it. Why should they be able to do it now after their administrations have failed so often? Ask Wall Street and the Stock Market. Biden's claim is demonstrably Delusional. Espy's ads depict farmer-philosopher-economists with a clear vision of what should have been done, however they offer no details.

After four years the main complaints about Trump boil down to disliking his manner. Well, kids, I'm not crazy about it either. But to use that as an excuse to establish a Biden presidency is self-defeating. A Biden administration would likely be known as the Ventriloquist Administration. The oath of office requires the President to "preserve, protect and defend the Constitution." Joe might promise to uphold the Constitution... until he thinks differently or until Pelosi (or one of their infamous multi-billionaires) instructs him otherwise. Foreign dictators, who have been stymied in part or completely by Trump's manner (or RESOLVE), are cheerfully awaiting possible dealings with Biden.

Joe's party has controlled him fairly well during this campaign; limiting access to him seems wise. Every day the media publishes things that undoubtedly contain some truth, but are distorted by careful editing to present a huge advantage to Biden. Make no mistake, this is designed to discourage Trump supporters from voting and even more to restrain donations to his campaign. Joe's party for months has lobbied to change the voting rules in a major way designed to help the party. The illegal civil unrest they allowed and even condoned has quieted down or gone mostly unreported. Coincidence? I doubt it. You do have to admire them for thoroughness in generating votes. If only this quality extended to other spheres. There are many individuals and elected officials within Joe's party who don't support the radical agenda promoted by the leadership but the silence of any opposition is deafening.

Quoting a line of dialogue from the film A Few Good Men, "These are the facts...and they are undisputed": Pandering, Plagiarism (theft/stealing), Hypocrisy (lying), Delusion – these don't add up to a plausible recommendation. But whether you agree or not, on Election Day please vote – once.

Bay High comes up short in the battle of Tigers

BY MAURICE SINGLETON
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

The Bay High Tigers (4-2, 1-2, district) scored twice in the first five minutes of the third quarter on Friday at Moss Point, which tied the game at 21-21, but they were unable to overcome two lost fumbles and two successful Moss Point onside kicks in their second district loss of the season. Final score: Moss Point 40 - Bay High 21.

The two teams of Tigers battled to a scoreless first quarter, and it appeared that they were going into halftime tied at 7-7.

But after a lengthy meeting of officials, it was determined that the official time keeper had two seconds remaining on the first half clock.

The Tigers rushed back onto the field from outside their dressing room one hundred yards away to a Moss Point team that was already lined up and ready to snap the ball.

Bay called a time out to get a handle on the disarray, but Moss Point was successful with a pass play into the end zone, and a 14-7 half-time lead.

“These kids came out and laid it on the line,” said Bay High coach Jeremy Turcotte. “They came off a tough loss last week to Stanislaus. They laid it all on the line over here tonight, and the final score is nowhere near indicative of the ballgame tonight.

“We preach it, and we preach it, and it’s life,” added Turcotte of his team’s ability to come from behind twice to tie the game, in the second and third quarters. “You’re going to get knocked down.”

Regarding the lengthy officials’ meeting that resulted in giving Moss Point an extra play before halftime, Turcotte responded: “That is tied for the worst officiating blunder I’ve ever seen in 20 years as a football coach, where they literally gave them an extra time out by ruining the clock management of the officiating crew. It was poorly handled and poorly explained. I drew a personal foul (penalty), and I apologize, but I am going to defend my kids. I have never in my career been in a situation like that, but there was no way that I was going to let those guys do that to us without me going out there and defending my kids.”

After Moss Point scored first with just over five minutes remaining before halftime, Bay High answered with a seven-play drive that got started with a 17-yard burst by Noah Cutter, and featured draws and keepers by the quarterback “Unit” - Josh Peters - who jooked and plowed his way for runs of 13, six, five and a one-yard carry for the score to tie the game at 7-7 with 1:07 remaining on the second quarter clock.

Moss Point started their ensuing possession at their own 32 yard line. They completed a five-yard pass play on the first snap, but a 15-yard face mask penalty against Bay High moved the ball to the Bay High 48 yard line.

Ruben Lee completed two passes from there, a 14-yarder to Ladarrius Matthews and a six-yard-coach to Larry Simmons for a 14-7 lead going into halftime.

The second half kickoff was a huge momentum swing for Moss Point as they got going with an onside kick, which they recovered. They scored in three plays, culminating with two passes from Lee to Simmons, one for seven yards and the latter a 20-yarder to extend the lead to 21-7.

Just as the Tigers appeared to have lost momentum, Carson Moran regained it for Bay High with a 51-yard kickoff return to the Moss Point 29 yard line.

After an encroachment penalty against Moss Point, the “Unit” (Peters) slashed his way for a 19-yard burst to the Moss Point five-yard line. Cutter then bulldozed his way for the touchdown.

Bay High’s defense allowed a mere one yard of offense on Moss Point’s ensuing possession, forcing a punt. Then, Cutter sparked the Bay High Tigers with two carries, the first for 21 yards and the latter a 40-yard burst in front of the Bay High bench for the score and a tie game (21-21) after Trevor Bordelon’s third successful PAT kick.

Moss Point would score three more times, and Bay High would lose two fumbles from that point.

“All I’ve asked of our kids is to come out this week and understand that they are good enough to play with anybody, and we have yet to play our best football,” Turcotte added. “We have not put it all together yet.”

Cutter led Bay High with 133 rushing yards and two touchdowns. Peters finished with 82 yards and a touchdown. Peters completed six of nine passes for 35 yards. Hosea Singleton had a blocked PAT kick and an interception for the defense.

Bay High resumes play in two weeks as they host Vancleave for homecoming on Oct. 30.

Rocks blank Bruins 41-0

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The Saint Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws traveled three-plus hours north to take on the St. Joseph Bruins in Madison last Friday. The ride home for the Rocks (5-2, 1-1) was a lot sweeter following a 41-0 shutout of the Bruins.

It took a little while to get going for SSC (5-2, 1-1) but once they did, it was a wild ride.

Sophomore quarterback Gage Peterson was back under center after being out of commission the last two weeks.

The Rocks were unable to move the football their first four possessions of the game but found a spark when Gene Hoffman blocked a punt that was recovered at the Bruin 18 yard line. On the first play of the drive, Peterson hit Nour Tayara for an 18-yard touchdown strike with 5:01 left before halftime. Hoffman converted on the PAT to make the score 7-0.

The Rock defense forced a quick three-and-out and SSC took over at their own 41 yard line.

Peterson hit Ja’Kobe Cameron and Connor Moran with consecutive first down passes that moved the ball deep into Bruin territory. Chandler Chapman finished off the 11-play drive with a seven yard scoring run with 38 seconds left in the half. Hoffman converted on the PAT to push the score to 14-0.

Hoffman picked off a Bruin pass on the first playoff the ensuing drive and returned it to the 24 yard line.

Peterson went back to the airwaves with two completions to Kyle Stegall down to the 10 yard line before hitting Tayara for a 10-yard scoring strike with nine seconds left before halftime. Hoffman converted the PAT to make the halftime score 21-0.

The Rocks picked up where they left off in the first half. Chapman returned the kickoff back 80 yards for an apparent touchdown but it was called back due to a block in the back. Then, on the first play of the drive a first down gain was negated by a holding call that put the ball on the 20 yard line. Stegall broke free down the sideline for 70-yard scoring run with 11:03 left in the third quarter. Hoffman converted on the PAT to make the score 28-0.

After another quick three-and-out by the Bruins, the Rocks took over on their 35 yard line. Chapman broke loose for a 45-yard bruising run to the Bruin five yard line. Stegall scored on the next play from five yards out with 4:48 left in the third quarter. Hoffman converted on the PAT to make the score 35-0.

Another three-and-out by the Rock defense gave SSC the ball at their own 43 yard line. Chapman picked up 16 yards on the first play and followed that run with a 41-yard scamper to the endzone with 19 seconds left in the third quarter. The two-point conversion attempt failed after a bad snap leaving the score at 41-0.

SSC head coach Nate Encrpera commented, “We were glad to see Gage Peterson back on the field and finding a groove throwing the football. This was a long road trip but these are things that we have to get guys used to driving these distances, getting off a bus and playing the game. We need to prepare this way. We have to refocus and play our best game this week against Vancleave. Our backfield is beginning to come together, as well as, our offensive line. We have to start fast on offense, get our confidence and play fast on defense.”

The Rocks were led by Kyle Stegall with nine carries for 100 yards and two touchdowns followed by Chandler Chapman with 10 carries for 129 yards and two touchdowns. Gage Peterson finished with 180 yards passing and two touchdowns on 17-for-28 passing. Connor Moran led the Rocks with seven catches for 60 yards while Nour Tayara had four catches for 44 yards and two scores.

On defense, the Rocks were paced by Andrew Mayer with eight tackles followed by Ryan Tyler and Blake Bilich with six tackles each. Hoffman ended with four tackles, a blocked punt and an interception.

The Rocks will travel Friday evening to Vancleave to take on the Bulldogs in a Division 8-4A contest. Last week the Bulldogs beat the Pass Christian Pirates 40-28. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. See you at the game!

Virginia also loved to fish. She used fly rods and cane poles to catch perch, a spinning reel to catch speckled trout and the occasional croaker; and she preferred a barbed gig for frogs and flounders—opting for a hand net for soft crabs.

She did not like snakes, and her son still remembers the feel of the punch after he stupidly cried wolf about a snake while afield one day.

and two grandchildren after her daughter in law passed away in 2001. She relished the role of changing diapers and cooking meals as she became the rock for her 5 and 3-year-old grand-boys. Nana later passed the baton to her new daughter in law, Jennifer Branson Johnston—who earned Mom’s seal of approval and then some.

After returning to Bay. St. Louis in 2006, she became very motivated by her love for God and love for her neighbors and became one of Jehovah’s Witnesses. She actively provided service until her health slowed her down.

In addition to Jake, Vera Lee, and Whitney, Virginia was preceded in death by her husband, Kire C. Mitchell, estranged husband, Huey Paul Johnston, daughter in law, Leslie Mudd Johnston, and stepbrothers Joseph B. Breland, Jr. and Donald “Bubba” Breland.

Nana Gin is survived by her son, Kenneth Craig Johnston and his wife, Jennifer of Dallas, TX, as well as grandsons Aidan Alexander Mudd Johnston of Crested Butte, CO, Jackson Lee Johnston of Dallas, and Barrett Hamilton Johnston of Dallas. She is also survived by her step mother, Lois Graham of Carriere MS, siblings, Marjoe Gex and Charles Breland of Bay St. Louis; Freddie Breland of Waveland, MS; Theresa Breland, Linda Walters, Jay Breland, and Donna Graham all of Carriere, MS, as well as a several branches of nieces and nephews.

Nana had a wonderful support structure around her; truly too many to list here, but know you are included. She is survived by two very special friends who helped her connect her daily dots, Carolyn Porter and Peggy Bailes, both of Bay St. Louis.

A private memorial service will be held through Zoom video on Thursday, October 22, 2020. At a future date, the family will hold an interment ceremony at Bayou Coco Cemetery in Hancock County, where Virginia’s ashes will be entombed with her daughter.

The Poet, Emily Dickinson, wrote much about death and dying. But—like NanaGin’s request that we celebrate her and have no sorrow—Dickinson also wrote about light despite darkness in her poem, “Hope” is the thing with feathers:

Hope” is the thing with feathers –

That perches in the soul –

And sings the tune without the words –

And never stops – at all –

FALL CAR CARE GUIDE

Tire maintenance keeps drivers safe

Maintaining tires is an important component of safe driving. Tires are some of the hardest working parts on a car or truck and are subjected to wear and tear every time rubber meets the road.

Tires affect many components of driving, including handling, braking and the comfort of the ride. Maintaining tires makes driving safe not only for drivers and their passengers, but also for fellow motorists.

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says that, in 2017, 738 fatalities occurred because of tire-related crashes. Many of those crashes were no doubt preventable, and that only highlights the importance of maintaining tires and monitoring their performance.

Poor tire maintenance can lead to premature wear and potentially result in a blowout. The automotive group AAA notes it is important to visually inspect tires as often as possible. Drivers should look for overall tread wear. Pay special attention to tread wear on one edge of the tires, which could indicate poor alignment. Erratic tread wear may mean tires are out of balance.

Drivers also should pay attention to how their cars drive and sounds. Unusual vibration or thumping noises suggest issues with the tires. A car that pulls in one direction also may be experiencing tire problems.

Vehicle owners should be aware of the routine maintenance steps that can keep them safe and improve the life expectancy of tires.

- Tire pressure: The NHTSA says only 19 percent of consumers properly check and inflate their tires. Keeping tires properly inflated is one of the most important steps to maintaining them. Tires lose around 1 psi per month, and underinflated or overinflated tires can contribute to unusual wear, blowouts and even excessive fuel consumption.
- Rotation: Check the owner's manual or recommendations from the tire manufacturer, but know that most mechanics advise having tires rotated every 5,000 to 8,000 miles. Rotation helps distribute wear more evenly on tires.
- Balancing: AAA says balancing also helps minimize uneven wear and tear. Balanced tires are achieved by using small weights attached to the wheels to limit vibration of the tire and wheels as they turn. New tires should be balanced, and tires also should be balanced after one or more is removed to repair a puncture.

- Alignment: Vehicles have wheel alignment measurements that pertain to manufacturers' specifications. Alignment that falls outside of the range can impact handling, fuel economy and tread wear. A drift or pull suggests alignment problems and should be addressed.

Vehicle owners should keep tire inspection and maintenance in mind as part of their overall car care plan.

The importance of routine vehicle maintenance

Owning a car is a big responsibility. Drivers who plan to keep their vehicles for the long haul must emphasize maintenance if they want to keep adding miles to their odometers. In fact, the automotive information site CarAd-vice says that routine maintenance may be the most important thing drivers can do for their vehicles.

A vehicle needs consistent care if it is to run efficiently. Maintenance also reduces the risk of roadside breakdowns and costly repairs. Here's a look at some of the benefits of staying on top of maintenance.

- Saves money: Even though maintenance costs money, sticking to a consistent maintenance schedule can save big bucks in the long run.

For example, the cost of rotating and aligning tires is considerably less than repairing a car after a major blowout and paying for a tow and tire replacement.

- Improves performance and efficiency: Routine maintenance includes oil changes, filter changes and fluid top-offs. Such tasks keep engines running smoothly. Ignoring this routine maintenance can put engines in jeopardy of breaking down and adversely affect vehicle performance, diminishing fuel economy and leading to a sluggish ride.
- Identifies safety issues: Routine inspections and work performed by reputable service stations help drivers stay abreast of recalls or issues that can affect the safety of the vehicle.

- Maintains a maintenance record: When the time comes to sell the vehicle, having a log of routine maintenance indicates to potential buyers that the vehicle was well cared for.
- Keeps compliance: Vehicles covered under manufacturer's warranties typically need to be maintained in adherence to factory-recommended maintenance schedules. This ensures that the vehicle is in compliance and will be covered in the event of a warranty claim.

Routine vehicle maintenance is important for a variety of reasons. Drivers can work with a trusted and reliable mechanic to develop a schedule that keeps their cars and trucks on the road.

Prepare vehicles for harsh weather

As the seasons change, motorists must take steps to safeguard their vehicles, especially when the season changes from fall to winter. Each winter, many vehicles are subjected to sub-zero temperatures, snowfall and icy roads, and such conditions can take their toll on vehicles over time. Taking steps to prepare vehicles for winter weather is a vital step that can make cars and trucks safer for drivers and their passengers.

Battery

Old batteries should be replaced before winter begins. Without a strong, properly functioning battery, engines cannot turn over. Most batteries last between three and five years. However, extreme cold can compromise batteries, especially those that have been around awhile. Batteries are made up of acid and water, and cold temperatures can freeze the water, thereby affecting battery performance. According to AAA's Automotive Research Center, at 32 F, the average battery loses 35 percent of its strength.

Newer batteries can be protected by starting the vehicle each day to warm up and recharge the battery. Let the car run for at least 10 minutes if you cannot take an extended drive.

Exterior maintenance

Keeping a car waxed and sealed can help maintain a durable exterior finish. This includes not only the paint, but the rubber and vinyl parts of the car's exterior.

Winter is a good time to switch to a heavy-duty synthetic wax that can shield against water and road salts. High-quality sealants can be used on bumpers, trim and rubber door seals as added protection. Speak with an automotive retailer or even the car dealership if you are unsure which products will make your car's parts most durable for winter weather.

Do not stop washing your car just because the weather is cold. Slushy, wet roads and snow-melting salts can speed up the formation of rust or other decay on the undercarriage of the vehicle. These materials will need to be periodically cleaned off. Flush the underside of the vehicle whenever possible, taking advantage of any dry, slightly warmer days.

Tire pressure

According to the automotive retailer Pep Boys, vehicle tires lose a pound of air pressure for every 10-degree drop in temperature. Many modern cars will alert to changes in air pressure, and drivers should be diligent in maintaining the proper tire pressure. Fuel economy as well as handling ability can decline when tires are not inflated properly. Tires can be refilled at many gas stations for little cost.

Wipers

Visibility is key in hazardous weather conditions, and keeping the windshield clean is a priority. This means ensuring there is enough windshield wiper fluid in the car and that it is a product that will not freeze.

Wiper blades can freeze and crack in the winter. Older blades may be more susceptible to damage. It's a worthy investment to replace existing wiper blades at the start of each winter. When vehicles are parked, pull the wipers off of the windshield to safeguard them from sticking and cracking.

Cold weather requires drivers to amp up their vehicle maintenance routines. Consult with a mechanic or automotive retailer for more ideas and products that can help your vehicles operate safely and efficiently this winter.
